VOLUNTEER POSITIONS

Meet Referee: The Head Official of the meet. You essentially run the meet and must have a strong knowledge of a swim meet and our league rules.

Stroke Judge: Will judge swimmers in each event and race. You should have knowledge of each stroke. We provide a training class for anyone interested at the beginning of the season. You can start by working with an experienced judge.

Finish Judge: Will write down the order of finish for each event and race. We will also train people looking to help us in this area.

Timers: Time swimmers as they swim each event. You will be assigned a watch and a lane to time at.

Marshall: Help organize children in gym and walk to the pool deck. 4 people per session.

Announcer: Announces events, sponsors, event results and make any general announcements as needed. 1 person per session.

Scoring Table: Will assist in running the computer for the meets, help place labels on the ribbons, distribute ribbons, and keep track of meet results.

Heat Ribbons: To hand out ribbon to the fastest swimmer of each heat.

Food Stand: Will help to set-up, work, and or help clean-up the food stand after each home meet.

Set-up Crew: Will help in the set-up of the meet. These people will need to assist is setting up the bulkheads, tables, tents, lane lines, and flags. This job usually starts at 4:30 for a home meet.

Clean-up Crew: Will help in breaking down of all of the above. Meets are usually over around 8pm or a little after.

 For AWAY meets, we will only need to provide 2 Stroke Judges, 8 timers, and 2 people for the scoring table.
